CORRECTION

"International Zoo-News", volume 9, number 3, wrote on page 80 that only the Duisburg Zoo, Germany and the Copenhagen Zoo, Denmark are exhibiting the very rare Rothschild's Mynah. We should like to complete this statement by informing you that the Zoo at Frankfurt, Germany, has also exhibited these birds since autumn 1961.

DEATH OF OLDEST INDIAN RHINOS

On January 25th, 1962, "Bessie", the oldest captive Rhino in the world, died at the New York Bronx Zoo. She was acquired from Frank Buck on 24th May, 1923. Also around the first of the year "Harry", the Indian Rhino at the St. Louis Zoological Park, died. He likewise was obtained from Frank Buck and had lived in the St. Louis Zoo since 19th January, 1934.

These were the oldest Indian Rhinos in the U.S.A.

At present there are 7 Great Indian Rhinos in America: 2 at Chicago (Brookfield); 2 at Philadelphia; 2 at Milwaukee, and 1 at Washington D.C.
