

To prevent the Deceit and Impostions the most Wary are liable to in the Goldsmiths Way, from publick Sales, Auctions, &c. (a shocking Forebode of the Destruction of Trade in general) and the excessive Deceit of cubited Brass, sold only by Brassiers, and by them most ridiculously call'd French Plate,

John Hopkins, Goldsmith, in Fleet-street, Near Fleet-Bridge,

CONTINUES making it his principal and chief Business to deal in Second-Hand Plate, Watches, Jewels, &c. and observes the Method he first began of selling at the most reasonable Prices.

The Call be almost continually has for Quantities of various Sorts of Plate Second-Hand, gives him an Opportunity of affording most Money for the same, as does the great Care he takes in employing the most experienc'd and best Workmen, enable him to serve with new Plate, &c. to the greatest Satisfaction, as Numbers of Quality and Gentry have sufficiently experienc'd.

Note, Nothing engrav'd with Coats of Arms, &c. will at any Time be expos'd to Sale before the Engraving be entirely taken out, so that it shall not be known the same ever was engrav'd, which is presum'd will be most pleasing to Buyer and Seller.

No Credit will be given or requir'd in either Way.

The Academy, Tower-Street, Nov. 6, 1740.

A Course of MECHANICAL and EXPERIMENTAL PHILOSOPHY will begin at this Place To-morrow the 21st of this Month, at Six in the Evening; to be perform'd

By Mr. BENJAMIN ROBINS, F. R. S.

AND Mr. WILLIAM WATTS.

To be continued on Mondays and Fridays till the Whole is finish'd.

Subscriptions are taken in, and Catalogues of the Experiments given at the said Academy.

THE Fine Linens of the Manufacture of Scotland being brought to such Perfection as to equal any Foreign in Beauty or Colour, and to exceed them far in Strength of Fabrick, but not being as yet so sufficiently known as to introduce or make them become universal; therefore to give the Nobility and Gentry an Opportunity of trying them, and to raise a publick Spirit for their Encouragement and Support, William Dalrymple, Esq; from Edinburgh has now open'd a Warehouse at Charing-Cross, a little below the Meuse Gate, where, during this Session of Parliament, will be sold by the Piece, for ready Money.

IF any one has Occasion for a Servant who speaks the Latin, French and Italian Tongues well, and understands Mathematicks in several Branches, who draws in Perspective, and writes Weston's Short-Hand with great Dispatch, and who will cheerfully besides put his Hand to any Thing within the Compass of his Knowledge and Strength, upon the Consideration of twenty Pounds a Year Wages, let the Enquirer leave a Note or Message for Mr. John Osborne, at Mr. Spavan's, over-against St. Clement's Church in the Strand, and the said Osborne will wait upon any Person who has Occasion for him. He is now in the 35th Year of his Age, and willing, if requir'd, to go abroad with any Gentleman or Family to any Part of the World.

N. B. The said Osborne has a Character under the Hand and Seal of a Lady of the greatest Worth, lately living in Richmonshire, whom he serv'd in the Quality of Domestic Steward and Overseer abroad till she died. And a Gentleman of undeniable Security, now living in London, will personally appear for him, and engage for his Honesty in a Bond and Judgment of a 1000 l. Sterl.

To the CURIOUS.

THE RHINOCEROS which came in the Lyell being of the Male Kind, and for that Reason much more curious than the Female that has been lately advertis'd, is to be seen at the Bell in the Hay-Market, at one Shilling each Person.

To be LETT,

And may be enter'd upon immediately,

A Large handsome House of the late Dr. Harrison's; consisting of Four Rooms on a Floor, with a large Hall and Parlour wainscotted, Kitchen and other Conveniencies; likewise an Apartment contiguous and adjoining to the said House, with a Wash house, Brew-house, and other Conveniencies also, both very pleasantly situate on the South Side of Castle-street in Reading, near the Town's End, with a large Yard, Flower Garden, Kitchen Garden and Fruit Garden, all wall'd in with Plenty of Wall Fruit Trees; likewise a Fish-Pond well stock'd with Fish, and to be let either with or without the compleat Furniture therein, at the Bottom of the Fruit Garden, below which is the Holy Brook, a Rivulet, and a very little below that is the River Kennett, navigable, and for all Conveniencies by Water Carriage to or from London, Newbury, and several other adjacent Towns and Villages, with an exceeding fine Prospect up the Meadows some Miles. The said House and Gardens to be let either with or without the said Apartment and its Conveniencies.

Enquire of Mr. Thomas Blanch, Upholder, in Reading; or Mr. George Ward in Furnal's Inn, London.

To be SOLD for Payment of the Debt of

This Day is publish'd,

Beautifully printed in a neat Pocket Volume, Price 2 s. (The Tenth Edition corrected, with some Account of his Life and Writings) of POEMS upon several Occasions, viz. 1. The Choice. 2. Love Triumphant over Reason. 3. Cruelty and Lust. 4. On the Divine Attributes. 5. A Prospect of Death. 6. On the Conflagration and Last Judgment.

By the Rev. Mr. JOHN POMFRÉT.

To which are added his Remains.

Printed for S. Birt in Ave-Mary-Lane; D. Browne without Temple-Bar; C. Hitch in Pater-noster Row; and J. Hodges on London-Bridge.

Where may be had, just publish'd, the 15th Edition, revised and corrected, of

The Adventures of Telemachus, the Son of Ulysses. In 24 Books. Done into English by Mr. Littlebury and Mr. Boyer. In two neat Pocket Volumes.

This Day is publish'd,

The SCHOOLS of the PROPHETS,

A Sermon preach'd before the University of Oxford at St. Mary's on Ait-Sunday.

By CHARLES WHEATLY, M. A. Vicar of Furneux Pelham in Hertfordshire.

Reprinted (with Amendment) for J. Nourse at the Lamb without Temple-Bar.

Where may be had, written by the same Author,

1. A Sermon, design'd as a Support to good Christians against the Discouragements of some new Enthusiasts.
2. The Qualifications and Blessings of a good Magistrate.
3. An Historical Vindication of the 55th Canon.
4. Christian Exceptions to the plain Account of the Nature and End of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.
5. Private Devotions at the Holy Communion; a single Sheet, adapted to Common Prayer Books of all ordinary Sizes.

This Day is publish'd,

(In a neat Pocket Volume)

Beautifully printed on a superfine Writing Paper,

QUINTI HORATII FLACCI OPERA, ad Fidem Editionis alterius Cantabrigiæ castigata.

Londini: Typis Jacobi Watson, 1740.

Prostant venales apud S. Birt, T. Astley, S. Aulsten, A. Millar, & R. Manby, Bibliopolas Londinenses. Pretium 2 s. 6 d.

This Day is publish'd, Price bound 6 s.

In two neat Pocket Volumes,

PAMELA: Or, VIRTUE Rewarded. In a Series of Familiar Letters from a beautiful young Person