This Day arriv'd the Mail from Holland.

Madrid, June 3.

THE Court has dispatched Orders to the West Indies to keep several armed Vessels constantly cruizing near Curassau, on Account of the Kind of War which has broke out between the Inhabitants of that Island, and the Spaniards. The latter sometimes take Dutch Vessels belonging to that Island, detected in a contraband Trade; but dismiss the Crews; and the People of Curassau make Reprisals whenever they find an Opportunity.

Lisbon, May 20. The Algerine Corsairs are come to infest our Seas. Three of their Xebeques have taken a Ship homeward bound from Maragnan, with a rich Cargo. Two of our Men of War are gone out after those Pirates, but we doubt whether they will meet with them or the Prize.

Copenhagen, June 14. A Dutch Ship is arrived here with a Rhinoceros, which is 13 Years old and weighs 6000 lb. This Beast consumes daily 80 lb. of Hay and 30 of Bread, besides a good Quantity of Wine and spirituous Liquors. They keep it in a great Cage set on Wheels.

Bonn, June 19. The Elector received some Days ago an Express from Munich, and conferr'd with his Ministers on the Subject of the Dispatches: And this Morning his Electoral Highness set out for the Bavarian Court, accompanied by his Master of the Horse, Chamberlain, Confessor, Treasurer, and other Persons. The French Minister has taken the same Route.

Hague, June 22. The last Letters from Paris, London, and Hanover, continue to give us some Hopes of a happy Issue of the Negotiation between the British and French Courts.

The Keukenhoff Indiaman has brought a Present from M. Mossel, Governor General of the Dutch Indies, to the Prince Stadtholder: It is a Moorish Dwarf, 18 Years old, and 32 Inches in height, well proportion'd, and tolerably educated. The Stadtholder has given him the Name of Goliath.

We have a Confirmation of the Change in the Ottoman Ministry.
