

The Rhinoceros Sumatrensis.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ERA.

Sir,—With reference to the article that appeared in your last week's issue re the Rhino. Sumatrensis, and signed Weejuggellah, I beg to inform all parties that I am in no way connected with that announcement, but that my experiences with rhinoceri date from December 6th, 1872, when a female, the property of the late C. W. Rice, animal dealer, of London and Hamburg, gave birth to a young one on board the s.s. Orchis from Calcutta. I was the attendant, and through a mishap the young one only lived twelve days. Any further particulars can be had by applying to

Yours obediently, J. WARNCKEN.
