

the worst cases in a deterrent. He wished, tramis personæ in be protected from the photographed. was opposed by a SSLYN MITCHELL, the There were two great ples laid down by Courts of Law and a ne of blackmail was y cowards to extort . Publicity was the e brave man, who If cases were tried whispers were inevit- blicity could silence hardly necessary for SON-HICKS to point many other cases of ally deserving of era. Moreover, he y from his relations d to conceal the fact iled, and from them he fact even of a y important case, o recent instances, r impossible, but the t aroused dispropor- e admitted that the d many Judges were by the increase in und the former, with e Lord Chief Justice, ouse to give power to addition to existing osal he was earnestly e, and indeed the ned very doubtful nishment was a true that improved social thier public opinion gh a slow, way out problem. withdrawn.

SENATE

PROPOSAL

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)
AWA, MARCH 10.

32, the House of ed the Government's he question of the te to a conference Dominion and the over a motion intro- Shaw, a Progressive, etion of the member- from 96 to 36, the y Provinces and their years. This motion also a motion intro- dlay, another Pro- of the abolition of ansformation of the an elective body— made by the people

Conservative leader, with the exception outh York), voted the resolution finally

Canadian Correspond- for the reform of the und on the preceding nnounce that Sir who was a great de and industry of ing at his residence the age of 72. An ars on page 16.

IR A. HOSIE.

of the Special Committee of the City Corporation, dealing with the Dangerous Structure notice served on the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's in December, sat to consider a draft report. After the meeting Mr. J. R. Pakeman, the chair- man, said that the Sub-Committee had been unable to conclude its labours. He was calling a meeting towards the end of the week, at which he hoped they would finish in order that the whole matter could reach the Court of Common Council at its meeting next week.

It is understood that the Sub-Com- mittee, provided the essential and neces- sary parts of the Cathedral are closed and that the work proceeds without interruption or delay, will recommend the Court to take no steps to enforce the Dangerous Structure notice.

TWO KILLED BY RHINOCEROS.

ADVENTUROUS WOMAN'S DEATH.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

NAIROBI, MARCH 10.

Two persons were killed by a rhinoceros in the Nanyuki district on Saturday. The first was a Dublin woman, Mrs. Green, who had completed a walk across Africa from the Belgian Congo, and was about to attempt to climb Mount Kenya. Mrs. Green, who was accompanied by one native and armed with a light rifle, encountered the rhinoceros between Nanyuki and Meru. She fired and wounded the animal eight times, but only slightly, and it charged and trampled her. Assistance was forthcoming from a neigh- bouring farm, but she died shortly after her removal there.

Later in the day Captain E. D. Atkins, a soldier settler in Nanyuki, and his wife were motoring to Meru when the car stuck in a dry donga. Suddenly the same rhinoceros charged them from the bush. They were unarmed, and Captain Atkins told his wife to leave the car and run for her life. Meanwhile, he attempted to divert the charging rhinoceros with his coat, but was trampled to death. Mrs. Atkins escaped and secured help, and the animal was shot later.

** Mrs. Green walked in eight months from Lusambo to Nairobi, via Fort Portal (Uganda). She had many adventures on the way. On Lake Kivu she held a mutinous crew in order by the use of an empty rifle, and once she narrowly escaped death in an elephant hunt. She had intended to climb Mount Kenya and Kilimanjaro and then to return to the Congo and thence to Rhodesia.

THE MARQUESS CURZON.

Sir John Thomson-Walker and Sir Bruce Bruce-Porter paid a visit to No. 1, Carlton House-terrace yesterday morning and expressed themselves pleased with Lord Curzon of Kedleston's condition at the end of the 24 hours succeeding the operation.

The following bulletin was issued last evening:—

Sir John Thomson-Walker and Sir Bruce Bruce-Porter visited the Marquess Curzon of Kedleston to-night, and found his condition satisfactory, in spite of the fact that he had a restless and somewhat uncomfortable day.

A tribute was paid to Lord Curzon in the House of Lords yesterday, when Lord Haldane asked Lord Salisbury, who was leading the House in the absence of Lord Curzon, if he had any information as to his condition. Lord Salisbury, in reply- ing, said that he understood Lord Curzon's condition to be satisfactory, and alluded to the "very grave loss" that his absence from the House entailed.

have received the generous and sympathetic cooperation of our local authorities and involve a capital cost of £3,000,000. These works include the construction of workers' houses, improvements of roads and harbours, water supply, tramway reconstruction and many other works of public utility. By this means over 17,000 situations for unemployed persons have been found which would not otherwise have existed, and every effort will be made to continue the promotion of schemes of public utility to provide useful work. In addition, the facilities afforded under the Loans Guarante- ee Acts have contributed materially to the reduction of unemployment, and you will be asked to extend still further the provisions of these Acts. Nevertheless, in spite of con- tinued efforts to increase the field of employ- ment, large numbers of insured workers have had to rely on the resources of the unemploy- ment insurance scheme, which has been main- tained on the same lines as in Great Britain since January 1, 1922. The contributory insurance fund has provided benefit for unemployed workers to the extent of £4,600,000.

"I have acceded to the request of my Ministers to dissolve Parliament, and conse- quently the only business which will be laid before you is that dealing with finance and other matters which require consideration before the end of the current financial year. A Bill will be brought in to amend the Educa- tion Act (Northern Ireland) 1923, and the Bill for the extension of the Loans Guarantee Acts to which I have already referred.

"I am glad to learn that the Acts passed in the interests of agriculture are already proving beneficial, and that as a result there has already been an improvement in the cattle bred in Northern Ireland and in the development of our egg industry. There is no doubt that the steps taken have resulted in greater confidence in British markets in the excellent quality of our agricultural produce.

"I am pleased to learn that a decision has been reached to re-open the Ulster Pavilion on an extended scale in the great Empire Exhibition at Wembley, as it once again testifies the readiness and determination of Northern Ireland to bear her part in the development of the Empire."

LOYALISTS' INTERESTS.

Speaking during the debate on the Address in the House of Commons, Sir James Craig said he was moved to request a dissolution of Parliament for many reasons which it was unnecessary to mention to the House. At all events they would not be charged with having overstayed their welcome. He, however, did not think that that cry had been raised in the country, but he thought that people should have an opportunity of saying that they were satisfied with the progress the Govern- ment had made during the four years of its existence and of strengthening their hands in regard to the heavy tasks that lay ahead.

He admitted frankly that besides being the Prime Minister of Ulster, he was the political head of the Loyalists' Party and he must safeguard the Loyalists' interests through- out the length and breadth of the Ulster area. The decks had been cleared and those in- ternal difficulties which had exercised the minds of people of all classes and creeds had been satisfactorily assuaged, so that they might be able to go to the country on what was the life-blood of their existence—the question of what was going to happen to them when the Boundary Commission re- ported. He believed that a pronouncement by the people, when the Commission was at present sitting in their midst, would go a long way to assure them that the feeling throughout the length and breadth of Ulster was that they should remain steadfast inside the ambit of Great Britain and the British Empire. He desired to emphasize most emphatically that they were a united Cabinet and a united Government in the decision they had arrived at.

Concluding, Sir James said it was proposed to finish the necessary business of the Session on Friday, and if that were done the Governor would issue the proclamation dissolving Parliament on Saturday. The nominations of candidates for the new Parliament would take place on March 24, and the election would be held on Friday, April 3.

COMPANY MEETINGS.

Full reports of the following meetings appear in our City pages:—Britannic Assurance Company; Charing Cross Electricity Supply; Courtaulds, Limited; Elysée Palace Hotel; C. and E. Morton Limited; Ottoman Railway; Spratt's Patent; United States Debenture Corporation.

F. J. Collier, the Labour Premier of Western Australia. Mr. Collier will also be entertained at luncheon by the United Kingdom branch of the Empire Parlia- mentary Association at the House of Commons next Wednesday. Mr. Amery will preside.

Sir Evelyn Cecil, who has not yet recovered from the indisposition which compelled him to resign the chairman- ship of the Home Office Committee on the Treatment of Juvenile Offenders, attended the House of Commons yester- day to move the first reading of his Bill for the regulation of the reports of judicial proceedings, which has twice passed its second reading and has once been approved by a Select Committee. The Bill is backed by members of all parties, including Mr. H. A. L. Fisher, Mr. Clynes, Sir John Simon, Sir Leslie Scott, Mr. J. H. Thomas, Sir Herbert Nield, Mr. Runciman, Lord Apsley, Major Birchall, Miss Wilkinson, and Sir Fredric Wise. The Bill not only forbids the publication of any indecent matter in judicial proceedings, but orders that in any proceedings for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for judicial separation, nothing shall be printed except the names, addresses and descriptions of the parties and witnesses; the grounds on which the proceedings are brought and resisted; submissions and decisions on points of law, and the summing up of the judge, the finding of the jury and the judgment of the Court and observations made by the judge in giving judgment. These restrictions are not to apply, however, to the publishing of any matter in separate volumes of bona fide law reports.

ENTERTAINMENTS INDEX.

(For details see page 12.)

THEATRES.

Aldwych	IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE	2.30 & 8.15
Apollo	BY THE WAY	2.30 & 8.15
Chelsea Palace	THE DOCTOR'S DILEMMA	7.45
Comedy	THE VORTEX	2.30 & 8.40
Court	THE FARMER'S WIFE	2.15 & 8.15
Criterion	JUST MARRIED	8.30
Daly's	THE DOLLAR PRINCESS	2.15 & 8.15
Duke of York's	THE PUNCH BOWL	8.30
Empire	BOODLE	8.15
Fortune	LAUGHS, SONGS, DANCES	8.31
Gaiety	KATJA	2.15 & 8.15
Garrick	OLD HEIDELBERG	8.15
Globe	THE GRAND DUCHESS	2.30 & 8.30
Haymarket	HAMLET	8
Kingsway	ARE YOU A MASON?	2.30 & 8.30
London Pavilion	NORTH OF 36	2.40 & 8.40
Lyric	THE STREET SINGER	2.30 & 8.30
Lyric, Hammersmith	THE RIVALS	2.30 & 8.15
New Oxford	KHAKI	6.30 & 9
Palace	NO, NO, NANETTE	8
Palladium	THE WHIRL OF THE WORLD	2.30 & 8.15
Playhouse	WHITE CARGO	8.30
Prince of Wales	CHARLOT'S REVUE	8.15
Regent	SAINT JOAN	2.15 & 8
Royalty	THE PELICAN	2.30 & 8.30
St. James's	GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE	2.30 & 8.40
St. Martin's	SPRING CLEANING	8.40
Savoy	THE SPORT OF KINGS	8.15
Shaftesbury	LIGHTNIN'	2.30 & 8.30
Strand	PATRICIA	2.30 & 8.15
The Old Vic	A WINTER'S TALE	7.30
Vaudeville	FATA MORGANA	2.30 & 8.30
Winter Garden	PRIMROSE	8.15

VARIETIES.

Alhambra	2.30, 6.10, & 8.45
Coliseum	2.30 & 7.45
Maskelyne's Theatre	3 & 8
Victoria Palace	6.15 & 8.50

CONCERTS.

Eolian Hall	(MR. HOWARD BLISS	5.30
	(MR. ANGELO DESFI	8.15
Queen's Hall	BRITISH WOMEN'S ORCHESTRA	8
Wigmore Hall	MISS JOAN MUIRELLA	8.30

EXHIBITIONS, &c.

Madame Tussaud's	10 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Zoological Gardens	9 a.m. till sunset

PICTURE THEATRES.

Capitol	2.30, 5.30, & 8.30
King's Cross	1.30 to 11
Pavilion, Marble Arch	2, 5, & 8
Philharmonic Hall	2.30, 5.30, & 8.30
Polytechnic	2.30, 5.30, & 8.30
Rialto	12.30 to 11
Stoll Picture Theatre	2 to 10.45
Tivoli	2.30, 5.30, & 8.30