

NEW YORK, May 2.—Veterinary surgeons have been invited to be present at the Bronx zoo on Monday when an operation will be performed on Mogul, a blind rhinoceros with three broken ribs. The operation will be an effort to restore the animal's sight. Mogul lost his sight while resisting capture.