

A Gentleman wants a Companion to Bristol or Bath in a Post-Chaise, this Day, or Tomorrow Morning. Enquire at the Bell Inn in Bell-Yard, Temple-Bar.

Of all that have been introduced to the Inspection of the Curious, under the Appellations of Colossus, Giant, or Giants, although very extraordinary Productions of the human Species, none have given such general Satisfaction as the modern Giants, now exhibited at the Elephant and Castle, without Temple-Bar. She is near seven Feet high; a Thing extremely extraordinary in the Female Part of the Creation; and has all the Elegance and Symmetry of the Fair Sex, blended with the Height and Magnitude of a Colossus!

BANKRUPTS.

Arthur Podmore, late of St. John's Street, Haberdasher. Thomas Allen, of Deane's Court, St. Martin's le Grand, Merchant.

William Johnson, of Fleet-Street, Merchant.

High Water at London-Bridge this Day at 38 Minutes after 2 in the Morning, and 55 after 2 in the Afternoon.

Saturday Bank Stock was no Price. India Stock, no Price. South-Sea Stock, no Price. Ditto Old Annuities, 1st Sub. 106 a 1/2. Ditto 2d Sub. 104 1/2. Ditto New 1st Sub. Books shut. Ditto 2d Sub. Books shut. Bank Annuities 1746, 1st Sub. Books shut. Ditto 2d Sub. Books shut. Lottery 1747, 1st Sub. Books shut. Ditto 2d Sub. Books shut. Bank Annuities 1747, 1748, and 1749, 1st Sub. 104 1/2. Ditto 2d Sub. 103 1/2. Ditto India Annuities, 103 1/2 a 1/2. Three per Cent Annuities, Books shut. Ditto Sub. 1751, 101 1/2. Ditto India, 101 1/2 a 1/2. New Bank Circulation, 2l. Prem. India Bonds, 5l. 12s. a 13s. Prem.

Admiralty-Office, January 10, 1752.

WHEREAS his Majesty has been pleased, by his Royal Proclamation of the 20th of March, 1750, and by his Order in Council of the 19th of last Month, to direct, that Passes of a new Form shall be issued to all his Subjects trading in the Way of the Cruising Ships of the States of Barbary: My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby give Notice, that, in Pursuance of the aforesaid Proclamation and Order in Council, Passes of the new Form will be ready to be issued at this Office, from the first of February next, to such Persons as shall apply for them; and at his Majesty's foreign Colonies and Plantations as soon as conveniently may be; but that such Passes of the old Form as have been issued, will nevertheless continue in Force till the 30th of October next.

J. CLEVELAND.

Mercers-Hall, December 19, 1751.

AT a General Court of the Society of the Free British Fishery held here this Day, it was Resolv'd,

That a Call of Ten per Cent. shall be immediately made upon the several Proprietors of the said Society; and it was likewise Resolv'd,

That the Books should be again opened for taking in new Subscriptions.

Pursuant to which Resolutions, the President, Vice-President, and Council of the said Society, do hereby give Notice, that all and every the Proprietors do pay in Ten per Cent. as a second Call, upon their several Subscriptions, on or before the 20th of January next; and the Books for that Purpose, and for taking in of new Subscriptions, are now open'd accordingly at the following Bankers, viz. Mess. Surman and Co. in Lombard-Street; Sir Richard Hoare and Co. in Fleet-Street; Mess. Child and Co. at Temple-Bar; and Mess. Drummond, at Charing-Cross. By Order of the Council, JOHN LOCKMAN, Secretary.

Mercers-Hall, Dec. 19, 1751.

THE President, Vice-President, and Council of the Society of the Free British Fishery, do hereby give Notice to all Persons in any Part of Great Britain, who may be desirous of treating with the said Society as Ship-Builders, for the building of Busses not exceeding 80 Tons, for the next Year's Service in the Fishery: Also to all Persons in Great Britain and Ireland, who would treat with the said Society as Rope-makers, for furnishing Cordage or Twine for Fishing-Nets: Likewise to all Persons who will undertake for the knitting or braiding of Twine for Nets: And to such as will supply Herring-Barrels (of Hamburgh or Dantzick Staves): That they may send their Proposals in Writing, to this Place, directed either to the President, Mr. Sheriff Bethell, or to the Vice-President, Mr. Alderman Jenßen. By Order of the Council, JOHN LOCKMAN, Secretary.

THE Commissioners for raising the several Rates and Duties upon Houses, Windows, or Lights within the City of London and Liberties thereof, will meet at Guildhall on Wednesday next, the 22d instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, to hear the Appeals of the Wards of Aldersgate, Aldgate, Billingsgate, Bishopsgate, Broad-Street, and Bridge; and on Friday the 24th, and on Wednesday the 29th instant, to hear the Appeals of the remaining Wards of this City; of which all Persons concerned are desired to take Notice.

SMALL-POX HOSPITAL.

ANY Person willing to serve this Hospital in carrying Letters, Messages, and doing such other Business as shall be required, may apply to the Committee on Thursday the 23d instant, at Five o'Clock in the Evening, at St. Paul's Coffee-House in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

Note, The Salary is Six Pounds per Annum, Diet and Lodging in the House.

A General Meeting of the Trustees for making, widening, and keeping in Repair, several Roads in the several Parishes of Lambeth, Newington, St. George Southwark, and Bermondsey in the County of Surry, will be held at the Royal Oak at Fenchurch, on Saturday next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at which Time will be sold to the best Bidder, the Materials of five Teams of Oxen at the East End of Church-Street in Lambeth, of one other Team at Lambeth-Lane, and of one other Team at Symonds's Corner in Lambeth-Math.

Richard Summerfell, Clerk.

THE Parish Church of St. Margaret Lothbury being lately repair'd, the Committee appointed to contract for, and inspect the said Repairs, have call'd a General Vestry, and reported the Charges the said Repairs amount to, and by Order of the said General Vestry, the same Committee is empower'd to borrow a Sum of Money upon Annuities for Lives, upon Interest not exceeding Seven per Cent. per Annum, the Interest payable quarterly, and to commence from Christmas last to every Annuitant, and to accept of no Annuitant under sixty Years of Age. Any willing to purchase the said Annuities, is desired to apply to Mr. Phipps, at the Buckram Warehouse in Lothbury, this Day.

Bedford, January 11, 1752.

WHEREAS the Subscription for purchasing Ground in the Town of Bedford, and situate thereon two Sessions House for the Use of the County, has been attended with the greatest Success; it is determined immediately to proceed upon the said Building: And whereas the early Payment of all Moneys subscribed will greatly forward the said Undertaking, it is hereby requested, that all Subscribers would, within a Month from the Date hereof, as it suits their Convenience, pay their several Subscriptions in the following Manner, viz. those of the County List, either to the Receiver-General, Richard Reddall, Esq; at Eversholt in Bedfordshire, or to his Banker, Mr. George Campbell, in the Strand, London: Those to the Town List, to Mr. Thomas Woodward, at Bedford; who are each of them empower'd to give proper Receipts for the same. And whereas a Plan of the said Building has been approved of, all Workmen willing to contract for the same, are desired to attend with their Proposals, in Writing, sealed up, by Nine o'Clock in the Morning, on the 21st Day of February next, at a Meeting to be then held at the Swan in Bedford, where the said Plan is now left, and ready to be produced by Mr. Francis Mason to any Person or Persons who are desirous to see the same.

William Goldfinch, Clerk of the Peace.

THE Vice-Grand of the Rimmer Chapter of GREGORIANS within Bishopsgate, intends this Evening to pay a Visit to the Vice-Grand and Brethren of the Pope's Head Chapter in Cornhill. The Brethren therefore of the Rimmer Chapter are desired to meet their Vice-Grand at Six o'Clock this Evening, at the Pope's Head Tavern in Cornhill, to attend him on the said Visit. By Order of the Vice-Grand, N. U. Secretary.

WHEREAS John Ennever, of South-Oxendon-Hall, near Rumford in Essex, Farmer, did, on the 4th instant, receive two Letters by the General Post, with the Post Mark of the 2d instant upon one of them; and upon the other the Post Mark is defaced, but both came together; and although affected to be wrote by two different Hands, and one of them remarkably black, yet the Language and Spelling confirm that they have been both wrote by one and the same Person, and the Contents of one of them being very incendiary, threatening the Life of the said John Ennever, and to destroy his House, Barns, &c, by Fire, if some wicked Proposals in such incendiary Letter are not complied with: Now the said John Ennever doth hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to the Person or Persons who put the said Letters into the General Post, or know of the writing thereof, and will make proper Discoveries, to be paid immediately upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

WHEREAS on the 26th Day of December last, about Six o'Clock in the Evening, the Barn of Mr. Pancot, at Wallworth in the County of Surry, was set on Fire by some Persons going by with a Link, by which a great Quantity of Corn, and several valuable Materials for Husbandry, were, together with the said Barn, utterly consumed, whereby the said Mr. Pancot, from a Person of good Substance, is reduced to great Distress, he having before met with great Misfortunes by the Loss of his Stock of Cattle by Sickness six times over: It is therefore hoped, the Condition of this industrious and laborious Man will merit the Consideration and Compassion of all serious and well-disposed People, who will consider these Misfortunes, as coming from the Hand of Providence, were no Way to be avoided. All Persons who are disposed to lend their kind and Christian Assistance towards the Relief of this poor Sufferer, are desired to send their Benefactions to Mess. Brown and Co. Bankers, in Lombard-Street, or to Mr. John Warrington, in Blackman-Street, Southwark, Churchwarden of the Parish of Newington, Surry. An Account will be published of the Benefactions raised.

King's Bench Prison, Jan. 19, 1752.

WE the poor long confin'd Debtors on the Common Side return our sincere and hearty Thanks for a Guinea, receiv'd of Mr. Thomas Stevens, Officer of Wood-Street-Compter, the charitable Gift sent to us by a worthy unknown Benefactor, which was equally divided among a great Number of Tradesmen, who are separated at a great Distance from their native Homes, and no one to recommend them to Employ; and their Families becoming burthensome to the Parishes, sheweth, that our Oppressions are great, but worthy of Imitation to remedy; it is most humbly requested of those who are well pleas'd to succour the Distress'd, to order their Messengers to go through the Lodge, up one Pair of Stairs in the Dining Room, where the Mayor is, with his Assisstant, on the Spot, in order to give to every Prisoner his equal Dividend.

AT RANELAGH-HOUSE, TOMORROW, will be a CONCERT OF MUSICK. To begin at Twelve o'Clock. The Vocal Parts by Signora FRASI and Mr. BEARD. BREAKFASTING as usual. Note, To be continu'd Tuesdays and Saturdays till farther Notice.

This Day, at Five in the Evening, MR. HUNTER will begin his COURSE of ANATOMICAL LECTURES.

For Mr. THOMAS COLLET, AT the Long Room in the Five-Bell Tavern behind the New Church in the Strand, will be three ASSEMBLIES. The first, which was to have been on Tuesday last, the 14th instant, was put off to this Day, being the 20th instant; the second, on Monday the 27th instant; and the third, on Monday the 20th of February.

Each Ticket Half a Guinea, which will admit a Gentleman and Lady the three Nights. The Concert will begin at Six o'Clock, the Assembly at Eight. Any Gentlemen or Ladies who don't chuse to subscribe for the three Nights, may be accommodated with Tickets at the Place of Performance, at Three Shillings each.

There will be a very good Set of Musick, and a Tabor and Pipe. Subscriptions are taken in, and Tickets delivered at Mr. Thomas Collett's, the French Horn and Violin, the Top of Durham-Yard in the Strand; and at the Places mention'd in the Bills.

For the Benefit of Miss THOMPSON, AT the King's Arms Tavern, Cornhill, on Monday next, the 27th inst. will be perform'd, a CONCERT OF Vocal and Instrumental MUSICK.

The principal Parts are as follows: First Violin by Signor Pasqualini; a Concerto on the Violoncello, by Mr. G. Jones; a Concerto on the Bassoon, by Mr. Miller; a Concerto on the Harpsichord, by Miss Thompson, likewise a Cantata of Mr. Stanley's, and two Songs of Mr. Handel's, by Miss Thompson, in the First Act. In the Second Act will be the most favourite Songs and Chorusses in Act and Galateia; the Part of Galatea to be perform'd by Miss Thompson; and the rest of the Parts by Performers of the First Class. Tickets to be had at Mr. Walsh's, in Katharine-Street in the Strand; at Mr. Robert Thompson's, in St. Paul's Church-Yard; and at Mr. Coe's, in Sweeting's Alley, Royal Exchange, at Five Shillings each.

AT Punch's Theatre in James-Street, near the Hay-Market, this Day, will be presented by the new, grand, operational, moving Wax-Work, by Desire, BATEMAN: or, The Unhappy Marriage.

These Figures are upwards of five Feet high, are an accurate Resemblance of Life in its various Actions, and are the largest and most beautiful that ever were seen in England. With Variety of Dancing between the Acts. The Scenes, Cloaths, Transparencies, and other Decorations are entirely new. The Whole to conclude with a curious Piece of Machinery, representing the CORONATION of his Most Gracious Majesty King GEORGE; after which it breaks, and represents the Royal Family. To conclude with the surpris'ng Performances of the Grand Turk Mahomet Carath, on a Slack Wire, scarcely perceptible, by the famous ENGLISHMAN, both with and without a Balance. The Doors to be open'd at Four, and begin exactly at Six o'Clock. We shall perform on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

For the Benefit of Signor and Signora CHABRAN, AT the Little Theatre in the Hay-Market, Tomorrow, will be a Concert of Vocal and Instrumental MUSICK.

The Vocal Part by Signora Chabran and Signora Frasi. Instrumental, a Solo and Concerto by Signor Chabran; Solos on the Violoncello by Signor Pasqualini; and a Concerto on the Hautboy by Mr. Vincent.

The other Instrumental Parts by the best Performers in England. Boxes and Pit Half a Guinea; Gallery Five Shillings. Tickets to be had at Signor Chabran's, the White House in St. Martin's Street; of Signor Degiardino, at the Golden Ball in Bow-Street, Covent-Garden; and at Mr. Simpson's Musick-Shop opposite the East Door of the Royal Exchange.

For the Benefit of Mr. JONES, AT the Castle Tavern in Pater-noster-Row, on Monday next will be a Grand CONCERT OF MUSICK.

First Violin and Solo by Mr. Brown, with Singing by Mr. BEARD; likewise a Preamble on four Kettle-Drums, by Mr. Joseph Woodbridge. Tickets Three Shillings. To begin exactly at Seven o'Clock.

After the Concert, by Desire, will be a BALL. Note, The Room will be illuminated with Wax Lights. Tickets to be had at Bridge-Ward Coffee-House, London-Bridge; the West-India Coffee-House, Threadneedle-Street; Sam's Coffee-House, Change-Alley; Hay's Coffee-House, Southampton-Buildings; Furness's Inn Coffee-House, Holborn; Queen's Arms Tavern, Newgate-Street; White Swan, Smithfield; the Musick Shop; at Mr. Jones's in Holborn; and at the Place of Performance.

For the Benefit of Mr. GWYNN, AT the Great Room in Dean-Street, Soho, on Tuesday the 14th of February, will be a CONCERT OF Vocal and Instrumental MUSICK.

The Vocal Part by Signora Galli; the First Violin by Signor Giardini, Violoncello by Signor Pasqualini, and several Pieces upon the Harp by Mr. Gwynn. To begin at Seven o'Clock.

Tickets to be had at Mr. Ogle's in Frith-Street, and at the Turk-Head Tavern in Greek-Street, Soho, at Five Shillings each.

THIS Day will be, in the Long Room at the Red Lion by the New Wells, near the London-Spaw, Clerkenwell, an ASSEMBLY.

Any Gentleman and Lady to be admitted for One Shilling. There will be a Band of Musick, and a Tabor and Pipe. To begin at Six o'Clock in the Evening.

AT Mr. BROUGHTON's Amphitheatre in Oxford Road, on Wednesday next, the 22d instant, will be a sharp Trial of Skill between the blustering HIGHLANDER and Mr. JOHN NEEDS; for Mr. Needs assures the Publick that he will meet and fight him at his own Country Weapon, Sword and Target, and likewise at the rest of the Weapons, to the utmost Severity, for Twenty Guineas and the whole Hoop. The Doors will be open at Ten, and the Masters mount at Twelve. There will be several Bye Battles of Boxing and Cudgel-Playing before the Masters mount.

BY Permission of the present absent Proprietor of that most admirable matchless Machine the PANOPTICON it will be exhibited to publick View at the usual Place near Mercers-Chapel in Chespeade, to any Number of Persons without Loss of Time, from Ten in the Morning till Eight at Night, at One Shilling each.

MR. JOHN COAN, the unparallel'd Norfolk Dwarf, or perfect Man in Miniature, who had the Honour of being seen by his Majesty at his Royal Palace at St. James's on Thursday the 19th of last Month, and on Wednesday the 8th instant by her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager, his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, Prince Edward, Princess Augusta, and the rest of the Princes and Princesses, at Leicester-House, as well as by the Royal Society at their General Meeting in Crane-Court, to their universal Pleasure and Satisfaction, continues still to be seen at the Watchmaker's facing the Cannon Tavern, Charing-Cross, at 2s. 6d. each Person.

MR. POWELL, the noted Fire-Eater, is to perform this Day, at the Hoop and Hoop in Queen-Street, Little Tower-Hill, at Six o'Clock in the Evening precisely. 1. He eats red-hot Coals out of the Fire, as natural as Bread. 2. He eats red-hot Tobacco-Pipes, flaming with Brimstone. 3. He takes a large Bunch of Deal Matches, lights them all together, and holds them in his Mouth till the Flame is extinguish'd. 4. He takes a red-hot Heater out of the Fire, licks it with his naked Tongue several Times, and afterwards carries it round the Room between his Teeth. 5. He fills his Mouth with red-hot Charcoal, and broils a Slice of Beef or Mutton upon his Tongue; and any Person may blow the Fire with a Pair of Bellows at the same Time. 6. He discharges as much Gunpowder out of his Mouth, as will load a small Fowling-Piece. 7. He takes a Quantity of Rosin, Pitch, Beer-Wax, Sealing-Wax, Brimstone, Allum and Lead, melts them together over a Chafin-Dish of Coals, and eats the said Combustibles with a Spoon, as natural as a Perring of Broth (which he calls his Dish of Soup) to the great Surprise of all Spectators. Note, He lives at the Adm and Eve in the Broad-Way, Westminster.

To be Seen at the Red Lion, Charing-Cross, THE grandest Collection of WILD BEASTS, viz.

1. The noble Female Rhinoceros, or real Unicorn, a Beast of upwards of eighty Hundred Weight, in a natural Coat of Mail or Armour, taken by the noted Kouli Kan from the Great Mogul, having a large Horn on her Nose, three Hoofs on each Foot, and a Hyde stuck thick with Scales, Pistol Proof, and so surpris'ngly folded as not to hinder its Motion, having travell'd a thousand Leagues by Land through the Great Mogul's Dominions to Bengal, and from thence shipp'd on board the Shaftesbury Indianman, Capt. Bookey, and is allow'd to be the only complete Animal of its Kind ever shewn in Europe. 2. A surpris'ng Crocodile alive, taken on the Banks of the River Nile in Egypt. Such a Creature was never shewn alive in the King's Dominions before. With others too tedious to mention.

AT the Cockpit Royal, Westminster, this Day, the 20th instant, will be a great Match of COCK-FIGHTING.

For Four Guineas a Battle, and Forty Guineas the odd Battle. The Gentlemen of London against the Gentlemen of the Weald of Kent. To begin at half an Hour after Four, and continue all the Week.

THE Creditors of the deceas'd Richard Gilbert, formerly a Malt-Factor at Queenhith, and afterwards of Illington, are desired to meet at Janeway's Coffee-House near the Royal Exchange, on Wednesday next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to take proper Measures for the Recovery of their respective Debts.

THE Creditors of John Harrison, late of the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Haberdasher and Hoiler, are desired forthwith to send in a particular Account of their respective Debts to Mr. Henry Lefson, of the Strand, Haberdasher, or to Mr. William Cooling, Attorney, in Ave-Mary-Lane; and all Persons indebted to the Estate of the said John Harrison, are desired to pay the same to the said Mr. Lefson, or Mr. Cooling, or they will be sued without further Notice.

ALL Persons that have any Things in Pledge, such as Jewels, Watches, Plate, Wearing Apparel, at the late Widow Ward's and Hannah Clark's, on Labour-in-Vain-Hill, over-against the Rimmer Tavern, are desired to fetch them away on or before the 29th of March next, leaving off Trade, or they will be sold.

A Dancing Master who lives near Haywood in Staffordshire, came to another of the Profession in the City, Tuesday the 7th instant, and said he would call again; if he will, he will hear of something to his Advantage.

London, January 16, 1752.

WHEREAS a Letter from T W, directed to Mess. Amyand Uthoff and Rucker, dated the 12th of December last from Falmouth, came to Hand Yesterday with the Post, a k of Plymouth upon it; in the Writer will return and make what Satisfaction he proposes, he may not only depend upon his being answer'd, but be requir'd with all possible Kinde.