

THE Committee appointed by the Society of Surgeons of his Majesty's Royal Navy to collect, examine, revise, and publish any useful Medical Papers which may be commended to them, having fixed the first Thursday of every Month for their future Meetings, this is to acquaint all such Gentlemen as shall be pleased to approve and encourage the Undertaking, and who are now, or may hereafter be furnished with any practical Remarks or Improvements, in Physic, Surgery, Anatomy, &c. that the same will be thankfully received by the Committee, directed to the Care of Mr. Millar, Bookfeller, in the Strand, where the Plan of this Undertaking may be seen.

WHEREAS on the 26th Day of December last, about Six o'Clock in the Evening, the Barn of Mr. Pancer, at Wallwort in the County of Surry, was set on Fire by some Persons going by with a Link, by which a great Quantity of Corn, and several valuable Materials for Husbandry were, together with the said Barn, utterly consumed, whereby the said Mr. Pancer, from a Person of good Substance, is reduced to great Distress, he having before met with great Misfortunes by the Loss of his Stock of Cattle by Sicknefs six times over: It is therefore hoped, the Consideration and Compassion of all serious and well disposed People, who will consider these Misfortunes, as coming from the Hand of Providence, were no Way to be avoided. All Persons who are disposed to lend their kind and Christian Assistance towards the Relief of this poor Sufferer, are desired to send the Beneficent to Messrs. Brown and Co. Bankers, in Lombard-Street, or to Mr. John Warrington, in Bachelors-Man-Street, Southwark, Churchwarden of the Parish of Newington, Surry. An Account will be published of the Beneficent as received.

Note, It appears on Examination by Persons of undoubted Credit, that the Loss sustained by the above Misfortune amounts to 1100l. and upwards.

To the Benevolent and Humane.

THE unhappy Widow and three Children of GEORGE CARY, late of the Town of Epping in Essex, Higler, who was inhumanly murder'd and robb'd, in his own Cart, on Wednesday the 5th, on his Return from Leadenhall-Market, humbly implore your Assistance, otherwise the Family must be inevitably ruin'd, the Widow being in a very bad State of Health, and the Children not capable of getting their Bread, one of whom was in the Cart with his Father, whom likewise they barbarously us'd.

Please to send your Donations to Lloyd's in Lombard-Street, to John's the Corner of Sweeting's Alley, to Sam's Coffee-House in Exchange-Alley, or to the Ship Tavern in Gracechurch-Street, the Corner of Leadenhall-Market, where you may be inform'd of the Particulars, and your Petitioners, as in Duty bound, shall ever pray.

Note, An Advertisement shall be publish'd of the Favours receiv'd, in this Paper.
