London-Hospital, Feb. 19, 1752.

THE Committee for erecting an Hospital for the Use of this Charity give Notice, that all Bricklayers and Carpenters who are willing to contract for digging and laying the Foundation, and erecting a Shell for the Building, according to the Plan agreed to by the last General Court, and under the Direction of Boulton Mainwaring, Esq; their Surveyor, may, by applying to the Secretary at the Hospital, be inform'd of the Particulars: And Notice will be advertised when the Committee will be ready to receive Proposals and make Contracts.

February, 18, 1752.

AT a Meeting this Day at the Star and Garter, of several Noblemen and Gentlemen, who have entered into a Subscription for preventing the Game all over England, and have already order'd the Commencement of several Actions against Poulterers and Salemen in London and Middlesex, for killing, and buying of Game contrary to the Statute, and are resolv'd to prosecute all unqualified Persons who shall kill, destroy, sell, buy, carry, or have in their Possession, any Sort of Game, or keep or use Dogs or Engines for the Destruction thereof, by reason whereof the Game is greatly destroy'd, and in some Counties wholly: It was further resolv'd and agreed, to give the following Rewards to any Person or Persons who shall inform against the Offender or Offenders against any of the Laws made, and now in Force, for the Preservation of the Game, viz.

To every one who shall convict any Person or Persons of snaring or destroying Hares or Pheasants, or taking Partridges or other Game in the Night, the Sum of Five Pounds; and to every one who shall convict any unqualified Person, Higgler, Carrier, Salefman, Poulterer, Vintner, or Innholder, of having in his Custody, or buying or selling Game, the Sum of Three Pounds; and to every one that shall convict any unqualified Person of Hunting, Shooting, or otherwise destroying the Game, the Sum of Two Pounds, over and besides the Reward given by Law.

And as it is well known, that Carriers, Higglers, and Stage-Coachmen, are the general Receivers of the Game unlawfully taken, and that the Poulterers, Salefmen, Vintners, and Innholders encourage them therein, and are Buyers and Sellers thereof, Notice is hereby given, that the Laws will be strictly put in Execution.

The said Rewards to be paid by Mr. James Cecil, in the Temple, to such Prosecutors or Informers as shall carry on the said Prosecutions under the Direction of the said Cecil.

Note, No Informer or Witness shall be discovered, unless the Offender stands a Trial at Law, and then not till the Time of such Trial.

All Noblemen and Gentlemen, and other qualified Persons, are desired to write to, or order their Titles or Names to be set, with the Day of the Month, on the Directions sent with their Game by any Stage-Coach, Higgler, Wagon, Cart, or any other Manner.

The Subscribers propose to meet every three Weeks at the Star and Garter in Pall-Mall; and the next Meeting is appointed for Tuesday the 20th of March next, at Four o'Clock, when it is hoped such Noblemen and Gentlemen who are willing to encourage this Undertaking, will meet the present Subscribers.
