

Lecturer - Preacher - Reformer

CLINTON N. HOWARD

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Subjects :

1. The White Rhinoceros.
2. The Man at the Bottom.
3. The Greatest Event in the World.
4. Wanted — an Earthquake.
5. A Joy Ride on the Water Wagon.
6. What to do with the Law-less Saloon.

*"Great as an Orator ;
Great as an Entertainer ;
Great as an Instructor ;
and Sincere as the Prophets of Old."*

Cambridge Times.

(Eighth Lecture)

HE HAS A HOME RECORD UNEQUALLED—OVER 300 LECTURES TO CROWDED HOUSES
IN TEN YEARS IN A CITY OF 200,000 POPULATION.

WHAT THE AUTHORITIES SAY

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman

"I consider him one of the greatest speakers of the day. Three times he thrilled our great audiences. All agree with me in saying that of all the men we have ever had at Winona, none have been more highly satisfactory. We eagerly await his return next year."

Dr. Chas. F. Aked, Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York.

"I have heard nothing like him since coming to this country, and certainly not before. He is the most amazing speaker I have heard in my life. I have not laughed as much during the last twenty years, nor heard as much good sense in a single lecture."

Dr. Geo. R. Stuart, Southern Evangelist:

"Clinton N. Howard is unique, graphic, entertaining. In my judgment, one of the most effective men now on the platform."

Col. Geo. W. Bain, Kentucky:

"God let loose a thinker."

AT OTTAWA CHAUTAUQUA

SUNDAY, JUNE 26

"The Greatest Event in the World"

MONDAY, JUNE 27

"A Joy Ride on the Water Wagon"

CLINTON N. HOWARD

OF ROCHESTER, N. Y.

as a Chautauqua Attraction

From the Winona Assembly Herald:

"Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., gave another of his whirlwind addresses in the auditorium last night. He passed from point to point so rapidly that only the most nimble brain could follow him, bringing his audience up from a hearty laugh to a burst of applause. He is one of the most gifted speakers who ever spoke from the Winona platform."

From Lincoln Assembly, Evanston, Ill., Edward S. Jones, Ch. Ex. Committee:

"Clinton N. Howard is all that the advertisement claims for him—and more. He carried our big Sunday audience with a whirlwind of oratory that moved the people to laughter and tears. He puts iron in the blood. He hits hard but keeps sane and sweet. He is radical, rousing, and Christian."

At Sterling, Kansas, Assembly, from John E. Junkin, Manager:

"Clinton N. Howard was thoroughly enjoyed. Ideas, arguments, illustrations and word pictures flow from him like a running stream. He is popular and entertaining on serious and important topics."

Charles City, Iowa, Assembly, A. D. Clark, Secretary:

"He made good and held the large audience in spite of the storm that broke upon us during the lecture. They stayed to the last."

Rev. J. V. Orin, Secretary, Scio, O., Chautauqua:

"Clinton N. Howard appeared three times, preaching Sunday morning, lecturing Sunday afternoon and again on Monday. We were expecting great things and we were not disappointed. Our people were delighted. Such humor, wit, wisdom, knockdown arguments and impassioned appeal we have not heard from any other."

W. D. Higdon, Supt., Patterson Springs, Ill., Assembly:

"One of the best addresses ever delivered from our platform. He stormed the audience and won them to his position by his sincerity, convincing argument and ready wit. It was a remarkable address."

Where He Lectured Ten Times

Thomas C. Osborne, Sec'y, Wayne, Nebraska, Chautauqua:

"Clinton N. Howard gave us ten lectures during the season 1909, morning, afternoon and evening. He covered one Sunday entire. He took the place of a top notch man who failed to appear, capturing the audience with the other man's topic. We tested his ability and endurance, and consider him a marvelous man. He appealed to all classes, aroused, entertained and convicted us without leaving open wounds. We consider his work as the crowning feature of our Chautauqua."