

Daily Advertiser, 1741. Rhinoceros in London. Daily Advertiser, London 1741, 5 December

Advertisement:

To be Seen

At the Unicorn in Oxford Road, opposite Argyll Street

A large RHINOCEROS. This extraordinary animal is six years old, and of complete growth ... and is the only complete Animal of that kind that has been seen in England these eighty-five years.