The most unkeard of barbarity was recently conted mon a nobleman of the name of «Grammont nitted upon a nobleman of the name of Grammont ho had been in prison nine years as an incorrigible

"A person applied to BONAPARTE for his release; he flew into a violent rage when he heard that this Mr. GRANNONY was still allies. He sent for Fouche, and desired him to get the man shot. Foccus told him that it was impossible to try him for the old affair. 'Well,' said BONAPARTE,' try him for it—it thought that Brigand dead long since.' 'Accordingly he was tried for entisting men to go to Bargland, and for furnishing them such was not the Bost de Bologne. A nam in prison to enlist men for England and to furnish them with warm to the Bologne, A nam in prison to enlist men for England and to furnish them with arms the string of the Bologne, A nam in prison to enlist men for England and to furnish them with arms had sheet Een one of the French papers (the Gazette de France) gave an account of this charge and sentence. Under such a Government what gonrantes is there for a man's existence?"

Mr. (followth, speaking of the degradation attacked in the first point of the particle of the price, in consequence of the assumption of it by Bonquett, observed.

Who (the of Emperor may now suit a black chief, 18ke Desatatives or Christophur; but every legitimate Emperor or King should have renounced these fittees shouly after Boxanaria had made binned Emperor; a public robber in Italy, of the name of Pra Biarolo, assumed the title of Emperor of the Airs, and King of Manexoo 1119.
