

appear to the right generally, and to the left of those consumed solely for their after effects.

---

THE GREAT INDIAN RHINOCEROS.—In answer to Mr Peel's inquiry (p. 430), I write to say that, to the best of my belief, the great Indian rhinoceros is now mainly, if not exclusively, restricted to the territories of H.H. the Maharaja of Cooch-Behar, to whom application should be made for permission to shoot a specimen. Julpaigori is the proper station from which to start.—R. LYDEKKE.

---

---

Effect of the Gooseberry Mildew Order.—In the House