
WONDERFUL PRODUCTIONS of the CREATION, Exhibited at the Lyceum and Exeter 'Change, Strand.

IN the former is that renowned ANIMAL, the RHINOCEROS, and THREE STUPENDOUS OSTRICHES, lately arrived from Barbary; one of them is upwards of eight feet high; three such birds have not been seen in this country in the memory of man. Also the Royal Lincolnshire OX, allowed by the best judges to be the largest and fattest ever bred in this or any other country. At their Mew-gerle over Exeter 'Change, is the finest assemblage of birds and beasts in all Europe. Considerable additions have been lately made; they now amount to near five hundred in number. Admittance to see the Rhinoceros One Shilling, the Ox One Shilling, and the Ostriches Sixpence. The birds and beasts together One Shilling, or separate Sixpence each person.
