

The BEAUTIES and RARITIES of the CREATION,
At the LYCEUM, and over EXETER 'CHANGE.

IN the former is that renowned Animal the Rhinoceros; also a most beautiful Zebra, from the Queen of Portugal's Menagerie, which is curiously striped with variegated Colours, and is uncommonly tame. In the same Room is a famous Horse remarkably spotted all over his Body, in a very fine Figure, and supposed to be the prettiest marked Horse in the Kingdom.

At their Menagerie over Exeter 'Change, is the finest Assemblage of Foreign Birds and Beasts in Europe.—There is now added to the Bird-room, a stupendous Ostrich, which exceeds in Magnitude and Plumage all the feathered Tribe in the known World.

Admittance to both Rooms, 1s., or 6d. separate. Admittance to the Rhinoceros, 1s. to the Zebra and Horse, 1s. each Person.

N. B. Curious Birds, &c. bought, sold, or exchanged.

AS TRAVELLING COMPANION