

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS.

MARR & LITTLEJOHN

Beg to announce Mr LITTLEJOHN'S return from

LONDON and GLASGOW

With a NEW STOCK of

FASHIONABLE GOODS,

EMBRACING SELECTIONS OF THE

LEADING NOVELTIES

PRODUCED FOR THE SEASON

IN ALL THE DEPARMENTS.

INSPECTION RESPECTFULLY INVITED.

Marr & Littlejohn,
GORDON STREET,
HUNTLY.

NOTICE TO SADDLERS, SHOEMAKERS, &c.

FOURTEEN YEARS SINCE LAST VISIT.
EXTRAORDINARY ATTRACTION.
THE WORLD'S GREAT SHOW.

EDMONDS' (Late Wombwell's) ROYAL WINDSOR CASTLE MENAGERIE, will exhibit in the SQUARE at Huntly, on WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28. KEITH, THURSDAY, JUNE 29. All should see the Monster Indian RHINOCEROS; the Wonderful Musical Performing ELEPHANTS, playing Selections on the Organ, Trombone, &c.; the Lion of LIONS, "WALLACE;" the Variegated GORILLA; the Baby CAMEL, only a few weeks old; with 600 other Valuable and Rare Specimens, and nearly the whole of Manders' and Wombwell's Collections, forming a DOUBLE MENAGERIE.

Admission to view this Great Collection, 1s; Children under Ten, 6d. Feeding Time, 9'30, P.M., 6d extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Mrs EDMONDS has much pleasure in informing her numerous patrons that she has succeeded in purchasing nearly the whole of Manders' Menagerie, which was Sold by Auction at the Agricultural Hall, London, August 4th, 1875. Amongst the animals will be found the Monster Mandrill, or Red and Blue Faced Gorilla, the only one in the country; the Lioness, "Princess," the same, since her arrival, having given birth, at Worthington Railway Station, to a litter of fine Cubs; the Llama, or Peruvian Giraffe; a pair of Camels, Tasmanian Devils, Panthers, and several of the Caravans, &c., &c., forming a Double Menagerie.

For further particulars see Window Bills.

JOHN CRAWFORD'S STOCK