

the Streets; and made some other Provisions for raising Money in the Nature of Excise; and the rest of the Edicts were of a like Tendency.

Canterbury, December 28.

We hear that Mr. Dwyer's Company of Comedians at Maidstone, will act there, on Thursday being the 29th Instant, King LEAR, &c. with the Harlequin Entertainment.

We hear that the Female Rhinoceros, or the Real Unicorn, a Work of Nature hardly to be parallell'd, was, this Morning, removed to the Mason's Arms in Faversham, where this wonderful Creature will be shewn; thence to Sittingbourn, Maidstone, Rochester, and Gravesend.

Extract of a Letter from London, Dec. 26.

Wheat	16s. to 18s.	Oats	8	10s. Qr.
Rye	12	Pease	13	16
Barley	10	Tares	13	15
Malt	12	New Hops	1l. 15s. to 2l. 10s.	per
Beans	11		C. in coarse Cloth.

This Day is publish'd,

Beautifully printed in Two neat Pocket Volumes, Price 6 s.

MEMOIRS of the Comtesse De BRESSOL. A History adapted to inspire the Noblest Sentiments of VIRTUE, PIETY and HONOUR.

By George Fox. London, Printed by W. Baskett, at the Sign of the Crown, in St. Dunstons Church-yard.