

ately let blood by one of the Company, who was a Surgeon; but he died without speaking a Word, tho' he bled pretty freely.

Canterbury, Nov. 30.

The Female Rhinoceros, or the Real Unicorn, a Work of Nature hardly to be parallel'd, is now come to Mr. Streeting's at the Flower-de Juice in this City, where, for a few Days, this Surprizing Beast will be shewn, and will afterward, go to Rochetter.

The Surprizing Mathematical Statues which have been shewn in this City with great Satisfaction, are remov'd from Sandwich into the Isle of Thanet, and in a short time will be shewn again in this City.

On Friday last several Persons were convicted at Fever-sham, before the Justices of the Peace for this County, for retailing Spirituous Liquors without Licience.

Extract of a Letter from London, Nov. 28.

Wheat	17 s.	to	18 s. 6d	Oats	8	10 s. 6d	Qr
Rye	12		13	Pease	13	16
Barley	10		12	Tares	14	16
Brn. Malt	12		16	New Hops	1 l. 16 s.	to 2 l.	10 s. per
Pale	12		16	C. in coarse Cloth.
Beans	11		13

This Day is published,