

BY PERMISSION OF THE BERLIN PHOTOGRAPHIC COMPANY

“THE HOLY FAMILY”

FROM THE PICTURE BY PROF. KARL MÜLLER, THE CELEBRATED PAINTER OF RELIGIOUS SUBJECTS, WHO HAS JUST DIED AT DUSSELDORF, AT THE AGE OF 75

“Sonepore Fair, held in Bengal in the Autumn, is one of the most wonderful sights in India. There are thousands of horses and ponies brought for sale, hundreds of elephants, camels, rhinoceroses, tigers, and every animal procurable in India. Often an elephant breaks loose and, getting scared, commits great ravages down the tightly-packed streets and byways between the bazaar booths, frequently causing loss of life”

A PANIC AT AN INDIAN FAIR: A RUNAWAY ELEPHANT IN THE SWEETMEAT BAZAAR AT SONEPORE