To the Afflicted with the Stone and Gravel.

THERE are few DISORDERS to which the human Frame is liable, more justly dreaded than the STONE and GRAVEL; and it is with the utmost anxiety that the Proprietor of ABRAHAM'S LITHONTRICUM has endeavored to render this Medicine, which from the success it has experienced, may without presumption be called a CERTAIN CURE for that DREADFUL DISORDER.

This Medicine does not operate in the usual manner of a strong Diuretic—nor need the Patient fear the effects which have too often followed the use of other Medicines: it is mild and gentle in its Operation, acting as a Cathartic at the same time that it effectually removes the Stone and Gravel.

For further information, the Public are referred to the Pamphlet which accompanies each of the following extraordinary instances of the success of this Medicine, is selected from the Proprietor's Experience. Where am I? he is in the hands of the Proprietor.
