

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH

IN THE

*Alfred Smith, Esq.,
K*

WOODH AND NEPAL FORESTS

A LETTER FROM INDIA

PRINTED FOR PRIVATE CIRCULATION

1870

honour, royal salute, and all the rest of it, dispelling the illusion of the last ten days, and reminding the Duke that his quiet holiday was over.

Before leaving Seetapoor, the Duke gave me the bag for the whole trip :—

- 5 Tigers.
- 1 Sambur.
- 1 Bara singha.
- 1 Gon.
- 1 Neelgar.
- 32 Spotted-deer.
- 37 Hog-deer.
- 9 Wild-boar.
- 41 Hares.
- 109 Partridges.
- 32 Pea-fowl.
- 14 Jungle-fowl.
- 4 Florikan.
- 14 Snipe.
- 2 Bittern.
- 2 Python.

Making a total of 305 head in eight shooting days.

Before leaving the camp at Marocha Ghat several handsome presents were made by the Duke. The Maharajah of Bulrampoor got a handsome double a revolver : and Surrub-